From the Principal's Desk

Thank you to all our families who were able to contribute to the can food drive (coordinated by Mrs. DeGiorgio and her Friday Action Team) and gift shoeboxes (coordinated by parent, Betty Fields). We were able to collect over 800 food items and 75 shoeboxes. Both these events provide our students a great way to contribute to their community. We have additional opportunities to donate coming up in December. While we appreciate all the donations, we also realize families may need to prioritize which organizations they would like to help. Never feel like you need to contribute to them all. Most are student driven and we value the motivation of students to help out in these areas.

We are looking forward to our annual Christmas performance by our TK-3 grade students on Thursday, December 20, at 9:00 am. In addition, our choir students will be performing on Wednesday evening, December 19, at 6:30 pm. All our families are invited to attend these performances as students show off their talents.

Our last day of school before the winter break is Thursday, December 20. This day is a minimum day. We hope all our families have a wonderful holiday season and look forward to seeing the students back on Tuesday, January 8th.

BOOK DRIVE FOR PARADISE SCHOOLS!

At the recent Board meeting our Board approved the 19/20 and 20/21 school calendars. Both can be found on our website or are available in the school office.

School Board Meeting

During the recent Board meeting, we recognized two outgoing Board members, Allen Toney and Cindy Butler. Allen followed in his father's footsteps, who also served on the Board, and has been on the Board for 13 years. Cindy has been on the Board for the past 9 years. Both had students go through NCCS and made many positive contributions.

Other items addressed at the School Board meeting was the approval of the following items: Teachers' new contract, 19/20 and 20/21 school calendars, and school modernization information.

At our next Board meeting (December 18) we will be welcoming Kim Christofferson and Erika Callegari as new Board members. Both have students attending NCCS and we are excited to have them serve in this capacity. In addition, we will be reviewing the current budget expenditures, Developer Fees report, and the results of our recent audit of the 17/18 budget.
